

Dj Mystic, Deep In My Heart

I fell in your arms, you held me so close
We lived in a dream, I adored you

But now you're gone away, I wish that you could stay
With me another day

Deep in my heart
I'm feeling frozen still
You left and placed a chill in my heart
Deep in my heart
A scar is open wide
A thorn is in my side
Cause of you

I gave it all up to be by your side
But now I'm alone, in the darkness

Because you're gone away, I wish that you could stay
With me another day

Deep in my heart
I'm feeling frozen still
You left and placed a chill in my heart
Deep in my heart
A scar is open wide
A thorn is in my side
Cause of you
