

DJ Remo, Rules - feat. Ada

I know we shouldn't, but you pull me under
I shouldn't now, but it's weird and nice
I shouldn't now, but we do it right
I know we shouldn't, but you pull me under
I know we shouldn't, but it keeps me wondering
I shouldn't now, but you fool me twice
I shouldn't now, but my eyes on the prize
I know you want it, I, I need it
So we decided to not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
I shouldn't have, but it's way too nice
I shouldn't have, but we do it right
I know we shouldn't, but you pull me under
I know we shouldn't, but it keeps me wondering
I shouldn't have, but you fooled me twice
I shouldn't have, but my eyes on the prize
I know you want it, I, I need it
So we decided not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not, not, not play by the rules
Not play by the rules
Not played by the rules
I shouldn't have, but it's way too nice
I shouldn't have, but we do it right
I know we shouldn't, but you pull me under
I know we shouldn't, but it keeps me wondering
