Sunlight...

I'm drifting away somehow by the presense of the morning sun I'm falling into the night as I can see you shining bright (bright...)

I'm drifting away somehow
by the presense of the morning sun
I'm falling into the night as I can see you shining bright

Sunlight
there's nothing like your warm embrace it feels so right
shining on your sculptured face

Sunlight
there's nothing like your warm embrace
it feels so right
shining on your sculptured face Sunlight...
