

DJ Tiesto, Grayarea - Gravity

You gave away
the one thing you held dear, It just won't stop
the ringing in your ear, Through the glass
your world looks hazy
The thirst has got
you going crazy,

you're too far gone

I promised you
ya know it was a lie,

I couldn't save you
if I tried,
your scars they cut you
way to deep,
So now I'll put
this lonely love to sleep,

you're too far gone
You'll waste away in Babylon

At the time you couldn't see that no one beats gravity
