

Dka, Blah, blah

People just talking and bragging too much
All I hear is the fucking blah blah they never stop and go back back
All I hear is them speeding till smash

People just talking and bragging too much
All I hear is the fucking blah blah
they never stop and go back back
All I hear is them speeding till smash

Living life, asking why? everything so fucking hard, never wait, never pray i don't know where god is waking up, counting days till my life drowns in flames still the same, darkness mode and i don't even know where it ends driving fast, hitting the wall waking up, blood running out of my nose everywhere, nobody cares all i see is the middle finger in the air

People just talking and bragging too much
All I hear is the fucking blah blah
they never stop and go back back
All I hear is them speeding till smash

People just talking and bragging too much
All I hear is the fucking blah blah
they never stop and go back back
All I hear is them speeding till smash

People lie, that I know all they do is fucking show off talking much, all they do all I need is them to prove catching life, while it runs while it flies out of my heart beating still, beating strong that's what I am famous for take the step, one by one leave behind all those whys take that gun, hide it deep I don't wanna hear that shot.

People just talking and bragging too much
All I hear is the fucking blah blah
they never stop and go back back
All I hear is them speeding till smash

People just talking and bragging too much
All I hear is the fucking blah blah
they never stop and go back back
All I hear is them speeding till smash
