

DMX, A Minute For Your Son

You got a minute for your son, Father?
I need to talk Im so tired of trying to run, Father Lets take a walk Im so sorry for whut Ive done, Father It aint my fault The devils been on my back lately Hes like a hawk You never give us more than we can handle But its gettin hard And Im a strong individual But i need you, God A lot of things that I used to I dont wanna Runnin tha streets like i used ta I know im gonna speak the word for you one day Up in the light -- Halleluiah!! -- on Sunday I thank you Lord for the blessings that you gave me And for my life the blessings taht you have saved me and for my wife you have carried me nuff times and thats the truth carried me through the rough times throughout my youth and through it that i saw you was still wit me i was that one lost sheep and you was comin to get me

[chorus]

lord, you got me like..... your luv got me like.... lord, you got me like.... your luv got me like....
lord, you got me like.... your luv got me like.... lord, you got me like.... your luv GOT ME LIKE....

im lookin at life a lil different now since you hugged me and i always luvd my people but now they luv me thank you for the luv, Lord, we praise ya Jacob, ascendants, from africa to asia bleeding the blood of Christ over our life Wrong or right just help us make it through the night And well shout your name in times of need and times of joy and when we bleed and when we are overcome with grief you dont have to tell me twice; ima take heed and because of whut youve given me, i know youll deliver me and i wont drown no matter how deep the river be you are the strength i never knew i had kept the heart good when they told me it was bad, all praise is due to ya, that's why I had to dedicate somethin new to ya, thank you Father

[chorus]

Uhhh i never knew a luv like this before messin with the Thug Life, i missed it all open up the doors and let me in im done wit the cards so lets begin prayers that you give to me, i give to them same way you live in me i live in them life is a blessing now you got me smiling from inside of my heart when inside it was dark and it doesnt rain any more only sunshine no pain anymore.... i really luv mine you wash away the tears with the fears im happier than ive ever been in my life, in thirty years you know that one day ill speak the word
you know that!
when i do, i will be hear
you know that!
you have me a permanenet smile and you know this, Father, cuz im ur child!!
