(verse 2)

You can see it in my eyes when I'm hustlin, burnt up tryin to come up from but its hard to listen when you tryin to get that platinum benzy its hard to imagine something like a nigga tryin to catch an orgasm track that feeling like a spasm tryin to study passin, got a passion gotta count that cheese they off in the breeze but it aint nothing if you got that paper then say something better put it away Cause the day comin when you fall off, when you just wanna hall off with four sawed offs blow it all off recognise its the big faces that count, better yet better stay flexed check the paper stay stressed and get all the dough whether its fast or slow get up to the point where the cash will flow Burger King and Mcdonalds really aint the way the best will go and its so cold in these windy streets when the ends meet your life will be ends deep with white shit
