

Dodgin' Bullets, Tomorrow The World Will Chang

The furnace rises
The death toll rises
Nightmares coming to light
The invincible shield has been broken
The rib cage has been shattered
Over night crisis visits your children
Over night crisis visits your head
Broken back from the left side of hell
It's a spell I can't quite break
Tomorrow the world will change forever
Sleep well for tomorrow could be hell
