

Dog Fashion Disco, Desert Grave

i'm diggin you a desert grave underneath the burning sun
i'm diggin you a desert grave you won't be found by anyone burying the sins of man in an eternal tomb of sand vultures circle in the sky and you my dear are the reason why you fought so hard to get away from the tight grip of death you tried so hard to run away until your last dying breath

in a eternal tomb of sand

go kiss the daylight goodbye as the sun lays down to die and comes to end another day as night falls on your desert grave
