

Dog Fashion Disco, Toothless Dream

Hirudinoids

emotionless and feeding threatened by anemia

I am helpless and bleeding suspended in air

caught in another toothless dream

when pagans sleep and atheists slumber evangelists and bishops come to comfort one another silent in prayer

possession by twilight haunts me continuously exercised upon my jaw

there in the garden

the serpent sings a lullaby that summons the undead from the ground as vampires and zombies begin cycling around me in the year of our lord continuum

exercised upon my gums

time continuum
