

Dog's Eye View, Last Letter Home

Wasted'

Time and money and hope
And fear of romance.
Sendin' out a letter
Sendin' out a sign that you
Don't wanna be here and be left behind
You made up your mind.
And when the wheels start spinning and the
Wind starts moving you around
You keep your eyes open boy,
Keep your ear to the ground'

Arrival'

Is nothing more than stoppin' for
A moment to catch your breath.
Before you get moving,
You better get your rest
Cuz you're oggna need your strength
When you take on the world.
The world takes you on.
And when the wheels start spinning and the
Wind starts moving you around.
You keep your ears open boy,
Keep your ear to the ground'

You're leaving, leaving, leaving'
Do you believe in, Anything?

Do do do do do'

Hopeless'

Hopeless to do more and say less and feel
More this time
I'm comin home for Christmas
I'm comin home cuz I don't wanna spend
Another New Year alone.
Cuz this one's just flown'
And when the wheels starts spinning and the Wind is blowing you around.
You keep your eyes open
You keep your head down'

Do do do do do'

Hopeless

Nothing's really hopeless.
It's just a little wasted time.
I'm sending out this letter.
I hope it gets to you,
I'll see you soon.
