

Dogfight, Answers

Almost every time I look at my own life
I try to find but have no answers. I could never know the truth in what is told. Inside I hide but have no answers. Who has the answers?

It's hard to read my feelings, what's inside for me.
It's too hard to feel when it feels wrong for me.
Does anybody know what's really wrong with me?
I can't express the way that I feel.

What is wrong with me?

Can't believe, is this really me? Could it be the same, just how it used to be. Does anybody know, what's really wrong with me?
I can't express the way that I feel.

What is wrong with me?
