

Dogfight, Breakdown

Can't breathe, can't see, this stress built up inside of me. I'll take away the pressure of this world today.

Break, I breakdown, break.

I feel the pressure coming. Can't seem to turn around. Can't stop to save my life and I'm going to hit the ground.

I've never felt something like this Can't believe that I could hate myself for what it's worth and I wish it all away.

When I can't see, and don't believe.
When I can't feel inside of me,
I'm breaking down. I fall apart.
This stress built up. Why even try?

I breakdown. I breakdown.
I breakdown. I break.
Can't breathe, can't see,
this stress built up inside of me.

Can't you see me breaking down?
