

Dogs Damour, Heroine

(4:44)

While you were walking round powis square
I was up in Highgate you know where While you were puttin' on my favourite clothes
'Cause they looked much better on you
You knew what I was about to do
When I'd come home you'd ask me why
I'd tell you the truth wrapped up in a lie
An all you say was Joey did you get the things I asked you to
Your love brings me down like a Heroine
Who don't love the hero, in the end of the film
Your love is for Heroine
Your between the sheets
Lyin' in the place I used to keep only warm for you, and for me
Oh does he say the things I said
When he's lyin' on the bed, I never will
Your love brings me down like a Heroine
Who don't love the hero, in the end of the film
Your love is for Heroine
