

Dogstar, 32 Stories

I know I'm here with you tonight could I be holding you too tight? just say the word and I'll let go we want the best for you, you know

32 stories in the sky
we saw a brilliant sunrise it kinda hit us by surprise and shined its beauty in your eyes I will hold you can't you see all the things you mean to me like the flowers and the trees can we smile eternally?

three weeks ago I spoke to you felt there was nothing I could do I booked a flight to somewhere new I couldn't get there without you

we saw a brilliant sunrise
I will hold you can't you see
all the things you mean to me
can we smile eternally?

I will hold you can't you see
all the things you mean to me
like the flowers and the trees
I will hold you can't you see
all the things you mean to me
can we smile eternally?

I will hold you can't you see
all the things you mean to me
