

Dogstar, Breach

Once you love me – I'll take it from you
All you hold dear – time don't mean nothin here
Do you see me – know how I play this
Nothing shakes you – rattles or breaks you
And everything you want – it lies there just beyond your reach – but you're pushing hard enough to Endless talking – your case made for walking
When night comes – you'll stay and I'll have it my way
And all the things you want – I'll take and soak them all in bleach – but you're pushing hard enough
