

Dogstar, Breach

Once you love me – I'll take it from you

All you hold dear – time don't mean nothin here

Do you see me – know how I play this

Nothing shakes you – rattles or breaks you

And everything you want – it lies there just beyond your reach – but you're pushing hard enough to

Endless talking – your case made for walking

When night comes – you'll stay and I'll have it my way

And all the things you want – I'll take and soak them all in bleach – but you're pushing hard enough
