

Dogstar, Nobody Home

we stand in the cold
here it's 30 below
I'm getting to know
nobody home

she falls asleep on the phone two thousand miles away she sleeps all alone she's getting to know
nobody home

I sent her away
to someone who she could see everyday I'm getting to know
nobody home

he falls asleep on the phone two thousand miles away he sleeps all alone he's getting to know
nobody home
she sees
Nobody home
