

Dogstar, Return

This is where you laid your head
Next to me, in this bed
This is where we talked for hours
And then you stood and you were gone
I've seen so much - I am in touch
I think and then I hurt
You know too much - you are in touch
I wait for the return
This is where you made me see
Everything I do for me
I was lost in Maryland
When you showed me how to be a friend
I've seen so much - I am in touch
I think and then I hurt
You know too much - you are in touch
I wait for the return
I've seen so much - I am in touch
I think and then I hurt
You know too much - you are in touch
I wait for the return
