

Dogwood, Point Counterpoint

Has time forgotten my face?
Still I'm not through
I feel I've myself to blame
I can't escape your name

All of it, my own shame
I feel time moving on

Oh...

Small words and big motives
All so untrue
And I've nothing left to say
You've taken my words away
Save for another day
When we'll be different now

{Time for another way}
{Suffer my own mistakes}
{Dream of another day}
{When you'll think different}

Why did you go away
The sun won't come out today
You've taken my world away
Why did you go away?

Hey...
