

Dokken, Dream Until Tomorrow

So many miles away thoughts of you being everyday
I spend the empty hours hearing the last words you said
A thousand days between us
A thousand nights we spent apart
Trust in my love you know only time can separate us
Imagine lost in my arms deep in a love that last forever

(chorus1)

All I ever wanted
Everything I waited for
Hold me in your dreams
Dream until tomorrow comes

I'm fighting time and distance
Illusion hides the fear inside
How can I bring you closer
I want you by my side

I lie awake and wonder
I am alone for one more night
Trust in my love
You know that only time can separate us
Your image burns in my mind
Deep in a love that last forever

(chorus 2)

All I ever wanted
Everything I waited for
Build my world around you
Let me surround you darling
Hold me in your dreams
Dream until tomorrow comes

Trust in my love
You know only time can separate us
Imagine lost in my arms
Deep in a love that last forever
