

Dokken, Give It Up

(D. Dokken/ B. White)

In one man's mind, we could have anything
In one man's life, we could lose everything

Look to the sky for what the future would bring to me

'Cause when it's all said and done

Who's gonna put away the gun

So, give it up

Stop all your fighting, yeah, yeah

So, give it up

It's my world

We're dancing with destruction

Just one more chance knocks opportunity

But it won't wait if we don't find the key

Listen to me, I've had enough of the sorrow and pain

'Cause when it's all said and done

Who's gonna put away the gun

So, give it up

Stop all your fighting, yeah, yeah

So, give it up

It's my world

Are we too blind to see...

BRIDGE

We're dancing with destruction

We're dancing with destruction

SOLO

Give it up

Stop all your fighting, yeah, yeah

So, give it up

It's my world

We're dancing with destruction

So, give it up
