Dokken, Give It Up

(D. Dokken/B. White)
In one man's mind, we could have anything
In one man's life, we could lose everything

Look to the sky for what the future would bring to me 'Cause when it's all said and done Who's gonna put away the gun So, give it up Stop all your fighting, yeah, yeah So, give it up It's my world We're dancing with destruction Just one more chance knocks opportunity But it won't wait if we don't find the key Listen to me, I've had enough of the sorrow and pain 'Cause when it's all said and done Who's gonna put away the gun So, give it up Stop all your fighting, yeah, yeah So, give it up It's my world Are we too blind to see... BRIDGE We're dancing with destruction We're dancing with destruction SOLO Give it up Stop all your fighting, yeah, yeah So, give it up It's my world We're dancing with destruction

So, give it up
