Dolly Parton, Sure Thing

(Dolly Parton)

It's Saturday night and it's a perfect night for dancin' I've had my makeup off and on all day But it's gotta be right for a night of sweet romancing And I've combed my hair at least a thousand ways Mirror Mirror don't you tell a soul Of how I smiled and talked all day to you And how I practiced every step I know of But tonight's the night and I'm a dancing fool

(It's a sure thing) when the sun goes down this evenin' (It's a sure thing) to be out on the dancing floor (It's a sure thing) I'll be the last one leavin' (It's a sure thing) gonna dance till I can't no more

I could of had a date but I thought I'd take my chances I'm gonna dance with a different guy to every song Then I'm a gonna wait till the right one strikes my fancy The he's gonna be the one to dance me home

(It's a sure thing) when the sun goes down this evenin' (It's a sure thing) to be out on the dancing floor (It's a sure thing) I'll be the last one leavin' (It's a sure thing) gonna dance till I can't no more

(It's a sure thing) when the sun goes down this evenin' (It's a sure thing) to be out on the dancing floor (It's a sure thing) I'll be the last one leavin' (It's a sure thing) gonna dance till I can't no more
