

Dolly Parton, The Tattooed Dentist In The Sky

Oh, there's a tattooed dentist in Ft. Collins City
His lies are bigger even than my titty.
He drives his patients into a rage,
When he claims to be "New Age";

He drills and drills and then he drills
But never never does he thrill
He's really a boring old little pill
And he just doesn't have no skills!

He smiles so much his drool gets sloppy
But he just calls himself D-Bobby.
You will really have to snore,
When your D-bobby is D-Bobby4.
