

Dolly Parton, Wild Texas Wind

(Dolly Parton)

Don't ask me if I'm crying
Can't you see it ain't raining
No, this ain't sand in my eyes
Before it has been spoken
When one good heart gets broken
That's enough to make a cowgirl cry
Cause here I am, all by myself
My man he just up and left
He said he would never try again
Now the thing that hurts me most
When he makes up his mind to go
He'll be gone, like a wild texas wind

Chorus:

Like a wild texas wind
Oh my man is gone again
I feel lonesome settin' in
Like a wild texas wind

Like a Wild Texas Wind
Oh my man is gone, he's gone, he's gone again
I feel lonesome sittin' in
Like a wild texas wind
HmMMM
