

Dolores Keane, My Love Is In America

my love is in america and i miss him tonight so much so i feel like taking the money we've saved and catching the flight
and catching the flight

the children are sleeping well and im on my own even though i've read his letters again and again, im alone, im all alone but the money i've sent home is barely enough there's an ocean that keeps us apart i've been lonely from home, but i mustn't give up what about this aching heart?

johnny come home, i need you tonight i need you tonight

but it's hard to go out just because certain assumptions are made when your man's not about

and i'm not so sure maybe i rather him here in my arms and us to be poor

still the money i send home is barely enough
there's an ocean that keeps us apart i've been aching for home but i mustn't give up

what about this aching heart?

johnny come home, i need you tonight
i need you tonight (i need you tonight)

johnny come home, i need you tonight

johnny come home, i need you tonight
