

Dolores O'Riordan, How

Look, you're standing alone

(Standing alone)

However I should have known

(I should have known)

(chorus 1)

Never before, never before never again, never again

you will ignore, you will ignore

I will pretend, I will pretend

(chorus 2)

In your world,

You're alone in your face

Your alone in your world

Your alone in your face

How you said you never would leave me alone

How you said you never would leave me alone

Now you're just walking away

(Walking away)

When you said you always would stay

Always would stay

(chorus1 and chorus2 repeat)
