

Domestic Problems, Untitled - Domestic Problems

i can tell you the story battles never won
people standing blindly out of reach of the sun and im telling you

that i am in love woah
i am in love
i am in love
with a girl that
holds me with her eyes

voices surround me
bicker and i shame(?)
i wish with a passion why can't she feel the same

and im telling you that i am in love woah
i am in love
i am in love
with a girl that

trying to be a friend and maybe that it'll be(?)
i know what i feel inside please see the beauty in me woah
please see the beauty in me...

my heart feels empty
soul shakin' pain(?)
i wish i could hold her man i lose but i gain

i am in love
i am in love
holds me with her eyes woah
holds me with her eyes...
