

Domestic Problems, Wastin'

My love is lost
In forgotten years
As the winter is carried away
And maybe just once
And a while we'll talk
But for now, you know I cannot stay

Mama, she had told me
That I'd never be lonely
And that someday I will see
But how would I know
Of all the places that I'd go
And the person I'm wanting to be

*Chorus*

Caught up in shadows
Of a woman I don't know
In the park, on a bright sunny day
But it's only a lifetime
Made up in my mind
And a heart that's fadin' away
