Domine, The Hurricane Master

Energy is lighting up the sky A mighty thunder is breaking through the night I saw your treason and I heard your vicious lies and I know what must be done

Now there's no tomorrow and I have no regret Like a storm made of steel I strike For I am the Avenger, predator of lies And I let the angry north wind rise

(Chorus)

I am the Hurricane Master Holy knight of the Ancient Code I am The Hurricane Master I'll blast your armies to kingdom come

Winds are rising, fast they're blowing Men are running, loud they're screaming See my anger, taste my vengeance The worse is yet to come

So here I go!

Now there's no tomorrow and I have no regret Like a storm made of steel I strike For I am the Avenger, predator of lies And I let the angry north wind rise

(Chorus)

I am the Hurricane Master Holy knight of the Ancient Code I am The Hurricane Master I'll blast your armies to kingdom come

Winds are rising, fast they're blowing Men are running, loud they're screaming See my anger, taste my vengeance

And justice is done justice is done
