

Dominik Dudek (Redford), December Again

December again, I've slept through this year
I wasn't alone, 'cause you held me tight,
So I wouldn't fall

so much to say, I take all the blame
Let's dive into the truth,
What else can we do?

Cause every time I look at you
You make my day the best
And even when I feel the worst
You give me a reason to stay
Look at you
Look at me
I think we feel the same
This December again

I wanna grow old with your head on my chest
Cause you are my home, that i really love
With you i can rest

It's the end of the year, but i feel the same
Let's dive into this mood
I don't wanna lose you

Cause every time I look at you
You make my day the best
And even when I feel the worst
You give me a reason to stay
Look at you
Look at me
I think we feel the same
This December again

Cause every time I look at you
You make my day the best
And even when I feel the worst
You give me a reason to stay
Look at you
Look at me
I think we feel the same
This December again
