

Don Dokken, Give It Up

(Dokken, White)

In one man's mind, we could have anything
In one man's life, we could lose everything

Look to the sky to what the future would bring to me
'Cause when it's all said and done
Who's gonna put away the gun

So give it up
Stop all you fighting, yeah, yeah,
So, give it up
It's my world
We're dancing with destruction

Just one more chance knocks opportunity
But it won't wait if we don't find the key

Listen to me, I've had enough of the sorrow and pain
'Cause when it's all said and done
Who's gonna put away the gun

So give it up
Stop all you fighting, yeah, yeah,
So, give it up
It's my world
Are we too blind to see (Don't fuck it up for me)
