

Don Gibson, Big Hearted Me

A big hearted me big hearted me big hearted me
A big hearted me had to go give 'em my love away
I give it to a girl that broke it in two like it was plain
I should have known better should I never let her but I couldn't break free
I give her all my love so gentlesly
A big hearted me big hearted me big hearted me
Bought her everything mink and a ring oh so fine
I thought she loved me so there never was a doubt that she was mine
Till one day opened my eyes plain as could be
My love was all gone she left me all alone a big hearted me
A big hearted me big hearted me
A big hearted me big hearted me big hearted me
