

Don Gibson, My Whole World Is Hurt

MY WHOLE WORLD IS HURT
(Don Gibson)

No day passes by no night without cry my whole world is hurt from now on Each minute reveals heartbreak so real my whole world is hurt from now on
And if I try to forget a just plain misery
I'm more confused and emptiness right here inside of me
And no future's bright out go those lights
My whole world is hurt from now on
And if I try to forget a just plain misery...
