YOU CAN'T LAUGH (AT A FOOL)
WRITER DON GIBSON

Yes I really thought that you would be mine forever
I didn't ever really think that you would leave me ever
I thought that true love was to yes I trusted in you
But I was wrong now I know it's too late
Now we're through and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool
Makes no difference to you you don't care what I do
And they say that's the way I should be
But I can't be that way I don't know any better
I still love you it's true and I will forever
I thought that true love was to yes I trusted in you
But I was wrong now I know it's too late
Now we're through and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool
Makes no difference to you...
Yes and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool
