

Don McLean, Going For The Gold

Going for the Gold

I chased a lot of rainbows
Down a lot of roads
Thinking love was something to be bought or sold
But I finally found a treasure
And its right here in your eyes
Now my golden dreams are of golden rings
Precious love without a price

(Chorus)

Im going for the gold
For the hearts thats in you
Im going for the love
That I know will be true
Ive had enough
Of those one night stands
Im going for the gold thats in a wedding band

I followed those illusions
That sparkled in the night
But they were fantasies that disappeared in the night
The midnight fires that burned so bright
Turn to ashes in the dawn
I didnt realize how empty I was inside
Until you came along

(Chorus x4)

(Fade out)
