

Don Philip, If You Could See Me Now

Yeah yah, whhoo, yeee oh yah
I got your letter just the other day,
You said you saw but walked away,
Said that I looked happy, I looked ok,
And you decide that I was better off that way

I may have seemed just fine,
But everyday your on my mind,
I miss you all the time, yah

And do you know what you'd see,
If you could see me now, (hey yah)
Just a fool with a broken heart,
Missing you somehow
And baby that's what you'd see,
If you could see me know,
You know the person who broke your heart,
Is missing you right now (yah, oh yah)

I got lost chasing all of my dreams,
I guess our love came apart at the seems,
I made a mark, but I've paid the price (yeah, yeah)
A pot of gold, and a heart of ice,
And since I went away
I think about you everyday
And wished that I had stayed,

And do you know what you'd see,

If you could see me now, (hey yah)
Just a fool with a broken heart,
Missing you somehow
And baby that's what you'd see,
If you could see me know,
You know the person who broke your heart,
Is missing you right now (right now, oh yah)

If I could change
Turn back the hands of time yah
I'd give you back my heart, my soul, my mind
And I'd be a different man
I'd do all that I can
And if you'd come back
I'd make everything alright again (yah)
.... yeahh girl ....

If you could see me now, if you could see me now
You would see my broken heart,
You would see a broken man, baby

And do you know what you'd see,
If you could see me now, (hey yah)
Just a fool with a broken heart, (just a fool)
Missing you somehow (somehow, baby, baby, thats what you'd see)
And baby that's what you'd see,
If you could see me know, (if only you could see me now)
You know the person who broke your heart, is me
