

Don't Look Down, Dramatic You

is there a reason for me to keep breathing?
i'm empty inside
I turn away without the strength for a long goodbye through all the lies and blinding truths i'd love to stay but i'm loneliest with YOU
are we scarred by everything we trusted?
did we get too far from everything we wanted?
i'm not listening anymore all alone I lie awake for hours praying for light i've lost my place and lost my way on this cold night
I look alive but i'm loneliest with you are we scarred by everything we trusted?
