

Don't Look Down, Weak Me

Well its crazy
To think that your ever coming back
But just maybe
You might be on your way
I know im stronger without you ever coming back
I'll take weak me
With you any day

I wish I had the strength to
Keep you from ever running out
Now nothing's changed
And I wish I did the same
Some other kid that cared
Your still the same.

Wake Me!
When its over
You'll see
When its starting again
When its starting again

And the constant reminders
Of every way you've changed
The little things that bring me back to you
And I'm still here beside you
Thinking of the days
You told me one thing,
But you never told the truth

I wish I had the strength to
Keep you from ever running out
Now nothing's changed
And I wish I did the same
Some other kid that cared
Your still the same.

Wake Me!
When its over
You'll see
When its starting again
When its starting again

Wake Me!
When its over
You'll see
When its starting again
When its starting again

Thanks to Josh Drucker (druckster2001@cox.net) for these lyrics</fo