

Don Williams, Gettin' Back Together Tonight

(Danny Flowers - Larry Willoughby)

Lying here next to you, feeling the way I do
Feeling you hold me tight, feeling your love tonight
Talking and laughing at all that we've done
And we're gettin' back together tonight.

I had to go away, had to be gone a while
I had some work to do, it nearly drove me wild
All of the loneliness fading away
And we're gettin' back together tonight.

Oh, what a world it's been,
The pain I've been living in without your love
Wanting you, missing you,
Dreaming of kissing you and then waken up
I've been spending my nights
Counting the days still I'll be holding you tight
And we're gettin' back together tonight.
Yeah, we're gettin' back together tonight.

--- Instrumental ---

I flew home in the rain, there was a long delay
There was some damage done We had so much to face
Now is our chance to make everything right
'Cause we're getting back together tonight.

Oh, what a world it's been,
The pain I've been living in without your love
Wanting you, missing you,
Dreaming of kissing you and then waken up
I've been spending my nights
Counting the days still I'll be holding you tight
Well, we're gettin' back together tonight.
Yeah, we're gettin' back together, gettin' back together
Gettin' back together, gettin' back together, tonight...

--- Instrumental to fade ---
