

Don Williams, In Love's Endless War

Hearts have been broken
In the game of true love
I'm afraid to surrender
I'm not strong enough.

Give it all away
Open up every door
My heart is a castle
In love's endless war.

In love's endless war.

Dreams can betray you
When you're far out at sea
Many proud hearts have foundered
On love's mutiny.

Give it all away
Be a young fool once more
My heart is an island
Adrift from your shore.

In love's endless war.

Give it all away
Open up every door
My heart is a castle
In love's endless war.

In love's endless war.

In love's endless war...
