

Don Williams, It's Who You Love

Lying here beside her I've come to understand
If you want to be happy you can
It don't take living like a king, it doesn't cost you anything
All it takes is a woman & a man
Because its who you love & who loves you
Its not where you are if she's there too
It's not who you know or what you do
It's who you love & who loves you
This modern world we live in is a sad state of affairs,
Everybody wants what isn't theirs
While the race for money & success in search of happiness,
We turn out the light & go upstairs.
Because its who you love & who loves you
Its not where you are if she's there too
It's not who you know or what you do
It's who you love & who loves you
So we hold each other tight
And own the world tonight
Cause love is all that matters anyway
Because its who you love & who loves you
Its not where you are if she's there too
It's not who you know or what you do
It's who you love & who loves you
Its who you love & who loves you
Its not where you are if she's there too
It's not who you know or what you do
It's who you love & who loves you
