

Don Williams, Senorita

(DeVito/Flowers)

(Spoken)

Back in the innocent days
There was a young Cowboy
Who was in love with a Mexican girl,
Only she didn't know it,
And he would watch her when she walked back,
In the cotton dress which danced in the wind
And her eyes held the stars
Now, she was the most beautiful thing
That cowboy had ever seen
Sent down straight from heaven
But he was afraid he would never win her heart
'Cause of some family scars left by the rain forest
But oww... how he loved her.

(Sang)

Senoritra passing by
Pardon me if I stop and ask you why
Senorita could it be
Someone like you could love someone like me?

--- Instrumental ---

(Spoken)

So he walked up to her
Tipped his hat and introduced himself
And she looked up at him and didn't know what to say.
So he told her the story of his family
The trouble that brought the barbed wire
And all the things that he could'nt change
And then he told her that he loved her
And he studied her reaction
And by the time the spring rains came
They were married
Now, there's an ol' song that my family used to sing
'Bout a young cowboy and a mexican girl
And how they fell in love.

(Sang)

Senorita passing by
Pardon me if I stop and ask you why
Senorita could it be
Someone like you could love someone like me.

Senoritra passing by
Pardon me if I stop and ask you why
Senorita could it be
Someone like you could love someone like.
Someone like you could love someone like me...