

Don Williams, So Far, So Good

I think I'm in a world of trouble, talk about a worried man. I've seen enough women falling out of love

Oh but so far, so she hasn't packed a thing at all, she hasn't made a call, she must be thinking it over

Oh the nights are the hardest to handle. So many things in my head. How much longer can I go on

Oh but so far, so she hasn't packed a thing at all, she hasn't made a call, she must be thinking it over

So far, so far so good.
