

Don Williams, Some Broken Hearts Never Mend

Coffee black, cigarettes, start this day, like all the rest,
First thing every morning that I do,
is start missing you

(Chorus)

Some broken hearts never mend, some memories never end,
some tears will never dry, my love for you will never die

(music)

Rendezvous in the night,
A willing woman to hold me tight,
But in the middle of love's embrace,
I see you're face

(Chorus)
