

Donald Lawrence & The Tri-City Singers, Season

Solo

I feel seasons everywhere
I feel blessings in the air
Those seeds that you've sown
You're gonna come into your own
Seasons, walk into your season

CHORUS

I feel seasons everywhere
I feel blessing in the air
(Those seeds that you've sown
you're gonna come into your own
Seasons)Walk into your season

Verse 1

I believe we're in a time when
God's gonna bless the saints
Those who have stayed,
Those who have prayed
He's gonna fulfill
The promise he made
For I hear the Spirit say
It's your time,
The wait is over
Walk into your season

CHORUS

Verse 2

I know that you've invested alot
The return
Has been slow
You throw up your hands
And say I give up,
I just can't take it anymore
But I hear the Spirit say that
It's your time,
the waiting is over
Walk into your season

Bridge

You survived
The worst of times
God was always on your side
State your claim, write your name
Walk into this wealthy place

(I hear the spirit say that its your time)

The wait is over,
Its your time

(I heard the spirit say it's your time)

Walk into your season
