

Donavon Frankenreiter, Everytime

watchin the moon rise and the sun fall tell me there ain't no one else at all i said aint no one you can take my day into night still give me all that lovin light thats what you do everytime you walk out that door
i just love you more won't you just stay here with me
baby
wont you stay here with me with me

make me an offer i can't refuse make me an offer where you won't lose i said you won't lose my heart is tremblin minus two for your love ain't no deal i want to lose i said no i dont want to lose
i just love you more
won't you stay here with me
i just love you more
baby won't you stay here with me stay here with me yeah
if i let you borrow my tomorrow would you just stay with me today
if i let you borrow my tomorrow would you just stay with me stay with me girl
baby won't you stay here with me...today
