

Donell Jones, You Know That I Love You

Mmm...

I really gotta know

If you trust me, do you trust me now, hey

I really gotta know

You know that I love you

And that ain't gon' change

And though you're not here with me now

My love for you stays the same

Don't worry about those other girls

They can't take your place

You know they only want my, my world

And you can't be replaced

(Girl, you know)

You know that I love you (Ooh, girl)

Girl, you're everything to me (Ooh, girl)

Just let me show you (Ooh, baby)

Just how much you mean to me

It's been such a long time

Since I've been with you

My friends say I should play around

They wish they could tell what I found in you

You know I'm not that other guy

Who broke your heart, mmm

You're still the only one in my, my world

Even when we're apart

(Girl, you know)

You know that I love you (Baby)

Girl, you're everything to me (Just let me show you)

Just let me show you (Ooh...baby)

Just how much you mean to me (Girl, you know)

You know that I love you (You know that I love you, pretty baby)

Girl, you're everything to me (Just let me show you)

Just Let Me show You (show you lady, girl yeah)

Just how much you mean to me

(oh, Girl)

I only have Eyes for you (oh, baby)

Believe me what I say is true (you know its true now baby)

you know my heart belongs to you and only you

And you can't be replaced, girl you know...

You know that I love you (You know that I love you baby)

Girl, you're everything to me (you know that I love you Baby)

Just let me show you (Just let me show you now)

Just how much you mean to me (what you mean to me now)

You know that I love you (say you know that I love you baby)

Girl, you're everything to me (you're everything to me)

Just Let Me show You (Baby now, baby now, Yeah)

Just how much you mean to me (oh girl yeah)
