

Donna Lewis, Beauty & Wonder

Fresh winds shadows lifting wide open welcoming hearts against the pink sky blackberry tangles a circle of friendship begin under the stars

This is the life full of beauty and wonder beauty and wonder
This is life full of beauty and wonder

In the twinkling of an eye it came to me
peace at last within myself and the white spray of the waves and the moon is my night light

This is life full of beauty and wonder
beauty and wonder
this is life full of beauty and wonder

This I will remember with a smile
I kiss the earth and the cool grass perfect pleasure in the eyes kick out the pain and fill in the better

This is life full of beauty and wonder yeh yeh
this is life full of beauty and wonder
